Golf Ireland 2021 Inter-Club Competition Format

 GOLF
IRELAND

FOREWORD

Foreword by Tim O'Connor, the Chairperson of the Transition Board of Golf Ireland

Dear Fellow Golfers

The Transition Board of Golf Ireland* are delighted to announce the new format for the Golf Ireland Inter-Club Competitions in 2021. This is another exciting milestone in the new journey of golf, as men and women come together under the umbrella of one single organisation, Golf Ireland.

During the lifetime of the ILGU and GUI, their annual competitions were cornerstones and highlights of the annual golfing year, engendering huge excitement right across the island, as well as great camaraderie among all the players and Clubs involved. As the saying goes, memories are made of this! These national competitions were also the space where golfers and the National Governing Body, and their structures, most tangibly came together.

At the Transition Board, we wanted to ensure we retained the very best of that exciting tradition, while at the same time reflecting that something new and different was also happening with men and women coming together in the organisation of our sport. We decided to undertake a major process of consultation to hear what golfers themselves felt and how we could best construct that balance I have just described in terms of past and future.

We believe and hope that with the new format set out in these pages we have found that balance. We feel that going with the eight-area format across men's and women's golf on the island, we have come up with a formula that is fair and equitable and means that all Clubs set off each year on a level playing field. I am personally excited also about having the men's and women's all-island finals at the same time and same venues and that that will bring a whole new dimension of excitement, atmosphere and togetherness! You will see that we will also be introducing pennants for the 8 eight area winners. I am hoping that the entire project is the start of a great new tradition in our sport, building on the magic of, and all that was best in, the past. And to allow ourselves the opportunity to take stock and tweak, we have built in a review of the whole structure after three years.

So let the preparations begin in Clubs throughout the four regions! We all know how tough a time it is out there for everybody at the moment and, while continuing to stay safe, let the thinking, planning and dreaming for 2021 begin!

Finally, on behalf of all of you, I want to thank my colleagues on the Transition Board for their work on this, in particular, our very hard-working Competitions and Tournaments Sub Committee, led with indefatigable enthusiasm by Joe McNamara, ably supported by Mary Culliton and our CEO Mark Kennelly, and also by Sandra Barnett and Mark Wehrly. My deepest thanks also to the volunteers in the GUI and ILGU who participated in the consultation exercise, the Boards of both Unions for their support throughout, and with special appreciation to all the Clubs who will be providing the venues next year for the first holding of the competitions in the new format – we hugely appreciate your generosity.

GOLF IRELAND 2021 INTER-CLUB COMPETITION FORMAT

Background

In creating a single governing body for Golf, there has been an acute awareness of the challenge of bringing together the different competition structures of the GUI and ILGU. In deciding the format for the 2021 Inter-Club competition, therefore, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland consulted widely with a variety of stakeholders. As part of this consultation, golfers across the island of Ireland were first asked for their views. A survey was issued in December 2019 and asked golfers to assess the following options:

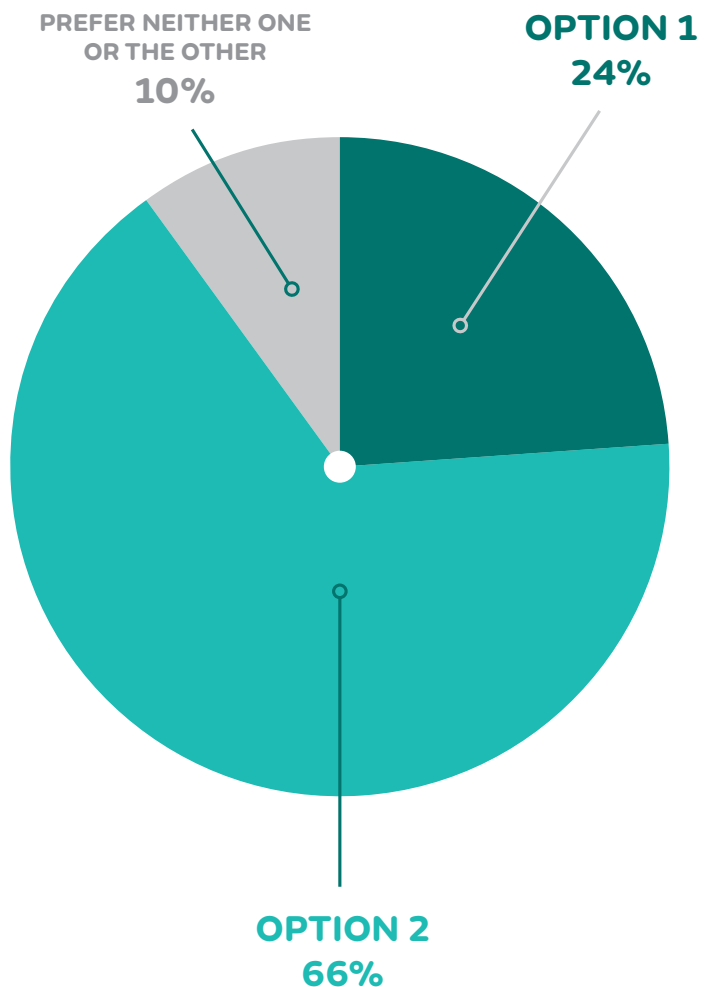

OPTION 1

- Inter-Club competitions to be split by province
- Format to produce four provincial champions
- The four champions to progress to All-Ireland Semi-Finals
- The imbalance of Clubs in this format was highlighted

OPTION 2

- Inter-Club competitions to be split into eight equal areas
- The geographic location of clubs to be a factor in determining the areas
- Eight area winners to progress to All-Ireland quarter-finals
- The fact that provincial titles would not be awarded in this format was highlighted

There were 7,130 respondents to the survey and the results were:

Specifically, 24% of respondents preferred Option 1, 66% preferred Option 2, while 10% preferred neither one or the other. In terms of the breakdown of respondents, 71% were men and 29% were women, while 69% (4,899) of respondents played in Inter-Club competitions. These results were presented at the AGMs of both the GUI & ILGU.

Due to the overwhelming support for Option 2, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland decided to further investigate the potential of this format. As part of this, an exercise in composing the eight 'Competition Areas' was undertaken by GUI and ILGU volunteers in each of the four GUI Branches and five ILGU Districts. A final round of consultation was then held with representatives from the GUI Branches and ILGU Districts in June 2020 to present the totality of the work undertaken by both the Transition Board and the staff and volunteers of the GUI and ILGU. It also served as an opportunity to receive feedback in relation to this work and to make further amendments to the proposed format.

Due to the overwhelming support for Option 2, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland decided to further investigate the potential of this format. As part of this, an exercise in composing the eight 'Competition Areas' was undertaken by GUI and ILGU volunteers in each of the four GUI Branches and five ILGU Districts"

Golf Ireland Inter-Club Format

As a result of this process, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland decided upon the following format for the Golf Ireland Inter-Club Competitions, predominantly based upon Option 2 above.

- Golf Ireland Inter-Club competitions will be split into eight equal Competition Areas.
 - One area in Connacht
 - Three areas in Leinster
 - Two areas in Munster
 - Two areas in Ulster

The composition of the Competition Areas is set out in Appendix 2.

- An Area pennant will be awarded to the winning club in each of the eight Competition Areas.
- Each of the eight area winners will then progress to an All-Ireland finals series.
 - The finals series will feature quarter-finals, semi-finals and finals across the entire suite of Inter-Club competitions.
 - Subject to the evolving public health situation next year, the intention is to stage these All-Ireland finals series over five weekends in August and September, with a mixture of male and female competitions held over each weekend. Further detail on this is outlined in Appendix 1.
- The winning club in each Inter-Club Competition will be awarded an All-Ireland pennant.
 - Gold medals will be awarded to the winning players,
 - Runners up and semi-finalists will be awarded silver and bronze medals respectively.
- The full set of regulations governing these Tournaments will be published early in 2021.
- Finally, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland has made a commitment for this new format to be reviewed following a three year period.

Measures for 2021

In addition to the format outlined above, the Transition Board of Golf Ireland has been considering the best way to plan for Inter-Club matches in 2021 due to the current health guidance and restrictions around sporting activity and associated gatherings. As a result, it has been decided that all 2021 Inter-Club matches will be held on a home & away basis until the Area Final. For clarity, this will mean one leg matches only, i.e. where there are five matches – three will be home & two away; where there are three matches – two will be home & one away etc. It is felt that this approach is prudent and appropriate due to the ongoing uncertainty in relation to the Covid-19 pandemic.

GUIDANCE REGARDING THE INTRODUCTION OF THE WORLD HANDICAP SYSTEM AND ITS IMPACT ON INTER-CLUB COMPETITIONS IN 2021

In November 2020 the World Handicap System (WHS) will be introduced in Ireland. This will be a fundamental change in the way handicapping works, and is likely to result in player's handicaps changing – in some cases significantly – with the onset of the new system.

This change has understandably led to a significant number of questions from club golfers on how Golf Ireland will conduct its Inter-Club competitions in 2021, all of which are subject to numerous regulations regarding handicapping – both in terms of eligibility and format.

While Golf Ireland is unable to answer all of these questions at this point, the following is a summary of the position that will apply with regards to the 2021 Inter-Club competitions, following consideration of this matter by the relevant bodies within the Irish Ladies Golf Union and Golfing Union of Ireland:

- To be eligible to compete in all Inter-Club competitions in 2021, a player needs to have a valid Handicap Index on 1 January 2021. This will be the player’s qualifying handicap for the year.
- The “four-card” rule currently operated in a number of GUI competitions will no longer apply.
- The “three-card” rule currently operated in a number of ILGU competitions will no longer apply.
- The specific handicap bands for all Inter-Club competitions will be published at the end of the year, following a detailed consideration of handicap data when it becomes available following the introduction of the WHS in Ireland.

- Handicap Allowances: The competitions that currently make up the suite of ILGU Inter-Club competitions (i.e. Senior Foursomes, Junior Foursomes, Junior Cup, Intermediate Cup, Minor Cup and Challenge Cup) will be played off scratch in 2021 (within relevant competition bands). All other competitions will continue to run as they did in the past (i.e. either as scratch events or with shots being given). Information on Foursomes and Four-Ball formats where shot allowance occurred will be forthcoming in due course.

It is the intention of Golf Ireland, in publishing this note, to reassure golfers that the regulations of Inter-Club competitions will be as straightforward – and inclusive – as possible in the first year of the World Handicap System.

As this system will be very different from the previous CONGU Unified Handicap System, we appreciate golfers’ patience in bearing with us as we strive to ensure its roll-out in Ireland is as smooth as possible.
